Carolyn Snelling & Madeline Miller

Media Questions

1. You both were involved with the Mission Trip to El Salvador. What were your roles?

2. Maddie, you indicated this experience was life changing. Can you give us some glimpses into how and why this came to be?

3. We understand that building homes was a key part of the mission. Can you tell us about this process…who you worked with and who benefited by the new homes.

4. What was it like to be working with and worshiping with the people of La Puerta Abierta The Open Door Church.

5. Tell us about your experience with the Hosanna School?

6. When you got home, you carried this experience with you in an unexpected way. How?

7. Carolyn, when you saw these beautiful letters of thanks to people in the church who had supported the group financially and with prayer, what came to mind? Is this where the idea of the book started?

8. So how was the book created with text and illustrations? Share the process.

9. What is your purpose and value of this book now for young children – our future missionaries?

10. How can the book be used in churches….and in families?

11. What about using this in other organizations that serve the world through mission projects?

12. We understand that there is a section in the back that gives some of the details about your trip with photos.

13. You have built a website that shares even more of the story. What is that?

14. Where can people find your book?
